THE BLUE HILL TROUPE

www.bht.org

brings high-quality theater performances to

New York City audiences while raising money for New York City charities. Since its founding in 1924, the Troupe has raised over four million dollars. Hailing from all walks of life and spanning several generations, Troupers donate their time and energy to produce a Broadway musical each fall and a Gilbert and Sullivan operetta each spring.

We are proud to partner with Quality Services for the Autism Community (QSAC) as our 2013-14 charity. All show proceeds will benefit QSAC to help children and adults with autism live meaningful and fulfilled lives.

Blue Hill Troupe, Ltd., presents

Gilbert & Sullivan's

Ruddigore or, The Witch's Curse

Robin Oakapple, a young farmer, loves Rose Maybud, but both are too shy to tell the other. But Robin has a secret. He is really Sir Ruthven Murgatroyd, the rightful Baronet of Ruddigore, in disguise. The Baronets of Ruddigore are cursed. Anyone who succeeds to the title has to commit a crime every day—or perish in inconceivable agony. Can Robin find a way of satisfying his ancestors' demands whilst continuing to live a blameless life?
